To Whom It May Concern:

Jabulani Khakibos Kids is a Public Benefit Organization which ministers to the needs of street children in Hillbrow and adjoining areas. We operate our public benefit activities based on Christian principles.

We are pleased to announce that as of January 2006 we have been granted exemption from taxes and duties in terms of Section 18A of the South African Income Tax Act 58 of 1962. This means that we are now in the position to issue tax deductible receipts to our donors.

These receipts may be a tax deduction in the hands of the donor. At present a taxpayer making a bona fide donation in cash or in kind to a section 18A approved organization is entitled to a deduction from his/her taxable income if the donation is:-

- ✓ Supported by the necessary receipt issued by the PBO:
- ✓ Does not exceed five percent of the taxable income of the taxpayer. calculated before allowing any deduction under section 18A or any deduction for medical and dental expenses.

These receipts may also be a tax deduction in the hands of a company. At present a company making a bona fide donation in cash or in kind to a Section 18 A approved organization is entitled to a deduction from its taxable income if the donation is:-

- ✓ Supported by the necessary receipt issued by the PBO.
- ✓ Does not exceed five percent of the taxable income of the company

If a Section 18A certificate is required for tax purposes, please contact the office as above.

To our present donors we say, we appreciate you and salute you – to our future donors we say, welcome on board. TO all of you we say thank you for making the difference in the life of our children.
